NO HORNS ON DEVIL

SATAN A REAL BEING, BUT WITHOUT ASBESTOS COAT OR FORKED TAIL

That the devil is a far different sort of being than most people imagine; that instead of being a hobgoblin with hoofs, horns and a forked tail, standing on the brink of a molten sea, jabbing folks into the fire with a pitchfork, he is in reality a powerful angel, beautiful in appearance but bent upon deception and destruction of humanity, was the declaration of Evangelist C. S. Prout, in his discourse last night at the Bible Tabernacle, Central avenue and Harvard street. A large audience was present to hear Mr. Prout speak on "A Celestial Warfare in Progress Sixty Centuries; or, the Devil in Angel Robes."

"The devil is a real being," said Mr. Prout. "Those who believe he has no existence except in the imagination, make a serious mistake. Christ speaks of him in John 8:44 as the father of lies, and a murderer from the beginning of the world. Again the Saviour says of him in Luke 10:18 that he fell as lightning from heaven. There was war in heaven between Christ and His angels, and Satan and his angels. Satan was cast out to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him, as we are told in Revelation 12:7, 8.

God did not create the devil as a devil. God did not create a sinful angel. God did not create sin. God did not ordain that sickness, sorrow and death should exist in the world. There was a time when all was harmony and peace throughout the vast universe of God. But Lucifer, a mighty angel who stood next to Christ and God, became jealous of Christ. Ezekiel 28 tells us the story. 'Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty,' we read in the seventeenth verse, 'thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness.'

"God created His angels and the inhabitants of the myriad worlds in space, not as mere automatons, but as free moral agents, capable of thinking, reasoning and acting. They were warned of the dire consequences of disobeying the Creator's will, but they were not prevented from exercising their choice. Lucifer had a wide influence. As disaffection grew in his heart, he spread it among the angels. Some sympathized with him. God showed to all the reasonableness of the Creator's plans, and that it was right that Christ, the Son of God, through whom the vast universe was created, as we read in John 1:1-3, 14,—that it was right, I say, that Christ should be taken into the intimate counsel of God.

"We must bear in mind that the universe never had known rebellion. None had seen its terrible results. Lucifer charged God with being an overbearing tyrant. Some were persuaded. The disaffection ripened into active revolt. At last this

AMERICAN LEGION

IMPORTANT MATTERS CONSIDERED AT BIG MEETING OF GLENDALE POST

A big meeting was held Friday evening at headquarters of the Glendale Post of the American Legion over which Chairman Nicoles presided. Seventy-five to one hundred members were present and the session was followed by a supper at which home-made cake furnished by the much-valued Women's Auxiliary was served and greatly enjoyed.

To the immense gratification of those participating in the meeting, Treasurer Wilson announced that the Post now has an enrollment of 200 paid-up members. This represents an increase of one hundred per cent during the six months the organization has been in existence, a growth in proportion to its size that has probably not been exceeded by any Post in California.

Reports submitted showed that during the six months just closed the organization has bought and paid for more than $1000 worth of furnishings and equipment for its club rooms. In the informal talks made, members expressed the hope that every ex-service man of the army, navy or marine corps in this district would unite with the Post.

One of the matters discussed was a big picnic in which all the Posts in the valley will unite, to be held at La Canada Lodge in the La Crescenta district July 11th, an all-day and evening affair. Details will be published later.

SECOND COMING

DR. EDMONDS PREACHES FROM THEME "WILL CHRIST COME AS A THIEF?"

Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian Church gave his third sermon yesterday morning on the "Return of Our Redeemer, Jesus Christ." His texts were taken from Matt. 24:42 and Rev. 16:15. "Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come." "Behold I come as a thief." Summed up briefly, the sermon was as follows:

To every student of the New Testament Scriptures at least, there are three basic facts, a foundation, why I stand and where I stand, or a reasonable answer to give to every man who asketh. The first basic principle is this: The Lord Jesus Christ did come to this earth and He did leave it. In Christendom at least there is no doubts concerning that fact. The second great outstanding fact is that Jesus Christ said, "I will not leave you orphans, I will send a 'Comforter.'" This is the dispensation of the Holy Spirit in which we live today. The third great principle is the fact that Jesus is coming again. He said so and it must be true. Jesus Christ said what He meant and He always meant what He said.

We are all interested as a usual thing in facts. Yet as generations go by we have to change our minds

MRS. LEAVITT ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Edgar Leavitt of South Orange street has the past week been entertaining a girlhood school chum whose acquaintance she first made when the two ladies were little girls in Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin. The guest is Mrs. May, who has been spending the winter in Ontario, California. She returned to that city Sunday. During her visit here Mrs. Leavitt entertained other former residents of Fort Atkinson. Mrs. Leavitt and her brother, Mr. Winslow, also welcomed their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Needham, and daughter, Natalie, who have just come from Nebraska to make their permanent home in Southern California. They spent last winter here and Miss Natalie attended Glendale High, then went back to close up business affairs in Nebraska and are now established for the summer at Long Beach.

TRAUTWEIN-WALLIS

GLENDALE'S TRAFFIC OFFICER MOTORS TO UPLANDS FOR BRIDE

W. E. Trautwein, Glendale's well-known and popular (except to persistent violators of the traffic ordinance) speed cop, doffed all his regalia of office Saturday noon, and arrayed himself in citizens' clothes, slid into the comfortable seat of a high-powered Sedan and hid him away to Uplands to meet his bride-to-be, Miss Georgina E. Wallis, who is in charge of the surgery department of the San Antonio Hospital. And we are assured that even in his impatience to arrive on time he did not exceed the speed limit. He and Miss Wallis drove to Los Angeles, where, at 8 p. m., they were united in marriage. Mrs. Trautwein cannot leave her position at once, so the young couple will defer going to housekeeping until after Mr. Trautwein's vacation time in August, when they will take their honeymoon trip and then come to Glendale to settle down at 138 Franklin court.

This is the culmination of a romance that started a year ago in the county hospital, where Miss Wallis was then employed. Mr. Trautwein on one of his official trips to that institution met and admired her. The feeling was mutual and the acquaintance soon ripened into love, with the above happy result.

NOTICE

At a specially called meeting of the Glendale Physicians' Club, held in the office of Dr. H. R. Boyer, Saturday evening, June 19, 1920, it was voted to ask the Trustees and other officers of the Glendale Research Hospital to confer with the Glendale Physicians' Club at a meeting to be held in the City Hall, Tuesday evening, June 22d, at 8 o'clock. Dr. H. V. Brown was chairman of the meeting and Dr. H. C. Smith was the secretary.

J. J. Burke of South Maryland avenue has gone to Portland with the Shrine Band to attend the Imperial Council of the Shriners.

DEMOCRATS BEWILDERED

LEADERS TRYING TO FIND WHERE PARTY STANDS AS REGARDS WILSON AND BRYAN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—With the opening of the Democratic convention only a week away, the Democrats find themselves absolutely bewildered by the situation.

Politicians here are devoting their time to trying to find out whether Wilson will ask a third term, whether Bryan can control the convention, what sort of liquor plank should be adopted, and why did McAdoo retire from the campaign.

The attitudes of Wilson and Bryan are causing the most concern. The majority of the leaders refuse to talk, saying that they would not want to have to take back later what they might say now.

ALLIED PREMIER MEET

CONFERENCE AT BOULOGNE TO SETTLE QUESTIONS AFFECTING PEACE OF EUROPE

BOULOGNE, France, June 21.—A meeting of allied premiers convened at 11:30 a. m. today.

It is expected this meeting will finally settle the matters which have prevented Europe's return to economic stability. The final purpose of the meeting is the settlement of the question of German indemnities and reparation.

The indications are, however, that first importance will be given to the situation in the Near East where Turkey is preventing the enforcement of treaty terms and is seriously menacing the internal peace of Italy and the Balkan states.

It is expected the meeting will order Germany to immediately reduce her army to 100,000 men.

APARTMENT HOUSE FIRE

SIX TENANTS ARE CUT OFF BY FLAMES AND LOSE LIVES AT VANCOUVER, B. C.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

VANCOUVER, June 21.—Six persons were burned to death in a fire today which destroyed the Balmoral apartment house. Twenty-five families were in the building. A furnace explosion is believed to have been the cause.

The janitor ran through the corridors shouting "fire" and many people ran from their rooms. As they dashed into the corridors they found the fire escapes cut off and also found themselves unable to return to their apartments because of automatic door locks.

Charles Denneby, one of the dead, was killed when he leaped from a window. He missed the lifeline which firemen were holding on the street below and was crushed to death on the pavement. He was a hero of the war and had lost a leg while serving with Canadian forces.

POLISH LOSSES

BOLSHEVIK FORCES CUT DOWN TWO REGIMENTS NEAR POLOTSK AND CAPTURE 165 GUNS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, June 21.—Bolshevik forces have taken 30,000 Polish prisoners in a new attack along the Dvina river extending from Dvinsk to Polotsk, according to a wireless message from Berlin quoting a Moscow dispatch. The Poles lost 165 guns. Two Polish cavalry regiments were destroyed at Polotsk, the dispatch said.

The Berlin message added that it was feared the "reds" might occupy Warsaw and that serious trouble had broken out in the Polish ranks.

RIOTS RENEWED IN LONDONDERRY

MANY INJURED IN CLASH BETWEEN SINN FEINERS AND UNIONISTS AND RESIDENTS LEAVING CITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, June 21.—Widespread rioting broke out in the streets of Londonderry again today between Sinn Feiners and Unionists, according to dispatches received here. Many families were evacuating the bullet-swept city. The looting and burning of houses continued. The police and military were unable to control the situation.

The trouble began as workmen were on their way to the factories. At least one workman was killed today and many persons were seriously injured.

POPULATION OF SAN DIEGO

STATISTICIANS OF CENSUS BUREAU REPORT POPULATION GAIN OF 88.7 PER CENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Census Bureau today announced the population of San Diego as 74,683. This is a gain of 35,105 or 88.7 per cent.

BACCALAUREATE

"LIVING A TWENTY-FOUR HOUR DAY," DR. WILLISFORD'S THEME

A very large audience which filled the auditorium of the First Methodist Church and overflowed to the gallery, assembled for the baccalaureate service and address Sunday evening, the first of the exercises of the Commencement Week of Glendale High School. Eight pastors were upon the platform representing practically all the evangelical churches of the city.

Following the organ prelude played by Mrs. Randall and the processional hymn when the choir made its entry, Rev. F. Marion Smith, of the Central Avenue Methodist Church, gave the invocation. Haydn's splendid "The Heavens Are Telling" was then well sung by the choir led by Miss Isgrig.

Rev. Mottorn gave the scripture reading—the Fifteenth Psalm and portions of the sixth chapter of Matthew.

Prayer was offered by Rev. O. P. Rider, who expressed thanksgiving for the heritage of liberty and enlightenment that has come down to us and appealed for divine help to pass it on to other generations with something added.

A beautiful solo number, "The Cross" (Ware), was sung by Miss Isgrig and then Dr. E. H. Willisford, who made the address of the evening advanced to the pulpit and announced his subject: "Living a Twenty-four Hour Day." His thought was that there must be something more than the physical, mental and moral support of the individual. There must be some surplus to pass on for the betterment of the world or the productive life of the individual or the nation will cease and decay will set in. He said in part:

"No one can read history or travel without being tremendously impressed with the wrecks of nations and civilizations. Why have they passed away? It was not for lack of people, not for lack of wealth. Many of those nations were rich in material things, nor was it for lack of culture, lack of great architects and builders, great musicians, great painters, great poets, philosophers and statesmen, nor was it for want of religion. We find they had an abundance of all these things. What caused these nations to decay? It was because those peoples failed to live a twenty-four hour day. The Egyptians, Assyrians, Persians, Babylonians, Chaldeans, were mighty nations. Where are they today? They did not lack literature. That we know because of the great library at Alexandria with its 700,000 volumes, twice as many as the Los Angeles City Library. They had astronomical observatories and chemical laboratories. Natural conditions have not changed. The same sun that shone upon them shines upon us with undimmed luster. Not an iota of material has been added to the world. These nations passed away because they only lived a part of the day and that part not always wisely. Their moral and spiritual development failed to keep pace with their material growth.

"The civilization that would perpetuate itself must elevate the whole people. A class civilization will never establish the kingdom of God. The nation that does not live twenty-four hours a day will pass away whether it be Egypt, Babylon or the United States. There must be democracy of privilege and opportunity. In these ages long gone there was a high state of mental culture and development and there were high moral standards, yet these things did not save their world.

"The twenty-four hour day means in its fullest expression, equal opportunity for the individual, the community, the nation, the world. It means internationalism.

"I am not here to tell the graduating class how to become producers of money. Money is not an end but an important means to an end; and being content does not mean being lazy. Time has been called money, and in this what wasters we are!

"By common agreement our twenty-four hour day is divided into three sections of eight hours each—eight hours for labor, eight hours for sleep, eight hours for eating, reading and other things. The average person works and sleeps fairly well but what about the other eight hours? What do we do with one-third of the day? It is in these eight hours that men learn to go wrong or right. The "Battle of Paris" only became dangerous when the Battle of the Argonne ceased.

FLINT-BODE

PRETTY HOME WEDDING UNITES GLENDALE GIRL AND POPULAR EX-SERVICE MAN

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock was celebrated the wedding of Miss Anna Bode and Roy C. Flint at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Bode, of 138 North Orange street. It was a pretty home affair and as quiet as such an event could be with about fifty guests in attendance.

The house had been beautifully decorated with asparagus plumosus and Cecil Brunner roses and an aisle roped off with ferns and roses from the dining room to a floral canopy in the parlor where, under a large wedding bell of pink carnations the twain were made one, Rev. W. E. Edmonds officiating. The bride was dressed in a white sport going-away suit and carried bride roses. She was attended by Miss Helen Tupper as bridesmaid and little Ethelyn Kent as flower girl. William Bode was best man and also played a violin solo preceding the ceremony, "Siciliana" from Cavallera Rusticana, the piano accompaniment being furnished by Mrs. Murman, who also played the wedding march.

After Mr. and Mrs. Flint had received the congratulations of their friends a wedding supper was served, the place of honor being given to the bride's cake, one of the most beautiful confections ever seen in Glendale. It was the creation of a friend of the bride. It bore a floral decoration in frosting of orchids and lilies of the valley, and was encircled by wedding bells.

Following the serving of refreshments the bridal pair left for a brief wedding trip and on their return will make their home in an apartment at 223 1/2 Hawthorne street, where the many useful and beautiful gifts of which they were the recipients will have a setting.

Mrs. Flint is a Glendale girl and has a host of friends here. She is a professional nurse and rendered loyal service during the war. Mr. Flint, who is a refrigerating engineer, is an ex-service man and was a member of the 143d Field Artillery in which he was the comrade of Herbert Henning, Sid Simon and others from Glendale. He and William Bode met overseas and became great chums. Through this friendship he was persuaded to come to Glendale and here met and loved the lady who has become his bride. Guests from out of town were: Mrs. Larsen and Master George Larsen of New York, sister and nephew of the host and house guests for the summer in his home, Mrs. J. Hagen of Santa Monica, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Mattison, Mr. and Mrs. James Mattison and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mattison of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Heger and Master William Heger, Jr., of Anaheim, Capt. Jesse McComas of Pomona, Carl Zimmer of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. George Beck and daughter Zoe of Hollywood. Glendale guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Kent and daughter Ethelwyn, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Murman, Mr. and Mrs. Rene E. Olin, Herbert Ferguson, George Hastings, Holman Midcalf, Harrison Frank, Misses Clara Midcalf, Dorothy Morton, Caro Whitaker, Helen Tupper, Mildred Whitaker, Marjorie Temple, Mrs. Sarah A. Tupper, Mrs. C. H. Temple and Master Charles Temple, Mrs. E. Frank, the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bode, their son William Bode, and the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Flint.

PIANO RECITAL

Those who appeared included Catherine Guthrie, Doris Moyse, Anna Fuelscher, Bonnie Jean Lockwood, Katherine Kitterman, Florence Peterson, Laura Moyse, Dorothy Gardner, Narcisse Truitt and Byron Kull.

PONDER—CRANE

E. F. Ponder of Phoenix, Ariz., manager of the Phoenix Tent & Awning Co., was married Saturday, 11 a. m., at the home of Mrs. Lillian Miller, 122 East Park avenue, to Miss Lillian Crane, Rev. C. A. Cole officiating. The young couple will go to Phoenix this week to make their home.

Personals

C. A. Lessard, who has built several houses on Dayton Court and one or two on Wilson avenue, has started another, one of six rooms, at 805 E. Wilson, to cost $4000.

A Mr. Rattray, not the well-known real estate dealer, W. S. Rattray, however, is having Contractor J. J. Burke build him a garage for a temporary residence at 343 West Acacia, to cost $1200.

Mr. and Mrs. George Van De Carr and daughter, Miss Helen, of Plymouth, Michigan, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Shattuck, of 114 West Broadway. They are old friends of the Shattucks and expect to spend about ten days in Glendale.

Mrs. Jennie Aldrich, a former resident of Glendale, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Rowe of 216 South Orange, where Mrs. J. E. Harrison and daughter, Helen, were also entertained at five o'clock tea Sunday night.

Mrs. W. W. Hall of 331 Patterson avenue is still suffering from rheumatism and is confined to a wheeled chair much of the time. She recently received a call from Mr. and Mrs. Fate, whom she formerly knew in South Dakota and who are now living in Long Beach.

Mrs. J. E. Beale, who came from San Francisco several weeks ago to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. Charles Casselman, of 451 West Elk avenue, and also to attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Lampert, returned to her home in the northern city Wednesday, making the trip by water on the Governor.

Mrs. S. Alice Norton, who spent last winter in Glendale and made many friends here, writes from her home in Oronota, N. Y., expressing her pleasure in receiving the Evening News, which she ordered before her departure from Glendale. She says its daily visits are eagerly looked for, not only by herself but by scores of her neighbors who are interested in this land of sunshine and flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver O. Clark of 346 North Louise street and John Clark of Los Angeles on Saturday motored to Camp Baldy and spent the week-end in the Clark cabin. Mrs. Clark reports that Sunday was the hottest day she ever experienced there and she imagined it was due to electrical storms on the desert and also because the camp was above the blanket of fog which enveloped Glendale in the early morning. There were a great many visitors at the camp and nearly all the cabins were occupied.

Homer Lockwood of 219 West Lomita avenue went to San Francisco a few weeks ago to establish an agency for the University Society, which handles books and sets on the installment plan. Mr. Lockwood is western manager for the company. Friday Mrs. Lockwood sold the beautiful home they have occupied only a few months, and, with the son and daughter, will join Mr. Lockwood in San Francisco to spend the summer. The family has lived in Glendale for 10 years or more and like it so well they hope their absence may be only temporary. The purchaser of the Lockwood home is Frank Huesman of East Windsor Road and it is for their daughter, Mrs. Clark, who is coming from Chicago this week with her husband and child to occupy it.

mighty angel and all his followers were cast out of heaven. Revelation 12:4 shows that at least one-third of the vast host of angels fell with him.

"Why did not God destroy the devil at once? Why did he permit sin to develop? Because God wanted the love and confidence of the universe. Had He destroyed Satan at once, all the angels and the inhabitants of myriad worlds in space would have served the Creator through fear. Satan was permitted to continue his rebellion, that the terrible results of his course might be seen.

"Adam and Eve were warned against him, but he camouflaged himself as a serpent, and so deceived the mother of the race. Man disobeyed God. Sin and death entered the world. Man's dominion passed to Satan.

"God could not condone disobedience. He could not abrogate His commands. He chose not to blot His rebellious subjects from existence at once. In infinite wisdom He revealed a plan for man's redemption. 'God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.' Thus God has opened the way for every son and daughter of Adam to turn away from the allurements of Satan, that through faith in Christ every soul may find peace, and life eternal."

Tonight Evangelist Prout will speak on the question, "What Is the Cause of the World Unrest?" Tuesday night the subject at the Bible Tabernacle will be, "This Same Jesus: What He Foretold of Our Day." The song service will begin at 7:45 each evening, and the meetings will continue throughout this week and next week.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Andrews entertained Thursday evening with a Five Hundred party at their pleasant home, 452 Pioneer Drive. Roses and Shasta daisies were effectively employed by the hostess in the decoration of her home and refreshments of punch, ice cream and cake were served at the close of play. Mr. Andre made high score and was the fortunate prize winner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Andre, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Griggs, Mrs. Mary Griggs, Lieut. and Mrs. Gilliland, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Vinton, Major and Mrs. H. W. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Veach from Stockton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinzeman of Central avenue are going to San Diego today on a brief business trip.

PARENT-TEACHER PICNIC

One of the most enjoyable picnics ever held by the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations took place Saturday when more than one hundred parents and teachers gathered on the beautiful grounds of the Cerritos Avenue school for a luncheon to which all the associations comprising the Federation had contributed. The tables were appropriately decorated with flowers in the Federation colors, yellow and white.

A Federation session followed the luncheon with Mrs. A. A. Barton, the retiring president in the chair. Mrs. Kille, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting.

A resolution was adopted declining to endorse any candidate for School Trustee but inviting candidates to appear before the Federation to state their platforms and principles.

The history of the year's work was read by Mrs. Blake Franklin. Other speakers were: Grammar School Trustees, L. T. Rowley and Mrs. Arthur C. Brown; Superintendent of School, Richardson D. White, Arthur C. Brown and E. E. Harwood, who told of the campus at the Magnolia Avenue School soon to be opened as a Municipal Playground.

Mrs. John Robert White then asked the privilege of demonstrating a patent bread mixer, requesting Mrs. Barton to assist her and when the box she carried was opened it was found to contain a beautiful bowl which was presented to Mrs. Barton by Mrs. White together with an original poem which Mrs. Barton, by request, read aloud. Mrs. Barton responded graciously and Mrs. E. B. Moore read the "Apostrophe to the Flag," written by Maria Sanford and read by her at the opening of the Congress of the Daughters of the Revolution in Washington.

Mrs. Barton then introduced and installed the officers of the various Parent-Teacher Associations.

Mrs. John Robert White, the new Federation president, made a brief speech in which she expressed her dependence on the co-operation of fellow officers and members.

FIVE HUNDRED PARTY

In honor of Miss Isabelle Hopkins of San Francisco, who was a week-end guest in their home, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Legge entertained with three tables of Five Hundred Friday evening. The hostess beautifully decorated her home with roses and dainty refreshments were served. The card players were: Miss Isabelle Hopkins, Miss Myrtle Pulliam, Miss Waunita Emery, Miss Jessie Thornton of Los Angeles, Harold McElroy, Dana Burket, Owen Emery, John Smalley, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Stephenson, and the host and hostess. Mrs. Stephenson made high score for the ladies, Mr. McElroy for the gentlemen, the consolation prizes going to Miss Emery and Mr. Smalley.

Mrs. Legge and her sister, Miss Pulliam, will be guests of Miss Hopkins at the matinee next Saturday.

WONDERFUL ROSES

"The Rose Lady" on Rock Glen avenue this morning presented to the Glendale Evening News a lovely armful of American Beauty roses, some of the stems measuring more than a yard in length. It filled the room with fragrance and made a beautiful centerpiece for the counter, attracting much attention and favorable comment. Miss Boles calls this rose the Bill Hart rose.

Advertise it, or advertise for it in the Evening News.

BACCALAUREATE

ments have brought to men more time, but as Edward Everett Hale once inquired, what will we do with it?

"Men must cure the ills of the social order if social growth is to continue. There must be no loafing along the road. The nation that halts is lost.

"As a nation we are standing today on dangerous ground. If we fail to assume our world responsibilities, it means that we like the mighty empires of the past will begin to decay. The fact that the Senate refused to accept any part in the League of Nations and refused to assume a mandate for a suffering people, has not settled these questions; a day of reckoning has merely been deferred.

"No man or nation will long endure or attain any great height of success that does not live a twenty-four hour day and that day will not be lived until the life of the man and the nation has come under the control and dominating power of Jesus Christ, who said: 'I come to give life more abundantly.' His was a twenty-four hour a day life. There we see complete, symmetrical development. Jesus saw the futility of men's ends and He commanded: 'Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness.'

"My plea is not for a more strenuous life but for a more systematic, regular Christian life, a life more filled with the spirit of Jesus Christ. Beware of covetousness, 'for the life is more than meat and the body more than raiment.' We do not need to add to material things but we do need to add something to the spiritual life of our times. May we endeavor to go out under the leadership of the spirit of God and live a twenty-four hour day."

and progress along scientific lines. Things that were facts years ago have been proved false by modern science. But God is not subject to change. How fearfully and wonderfully man is made! How little we know about this physical life we live! Sam Jones said: "A man who tries to argue down a fact is a fool. When I get a fact I sit up with it." We look with suspicion upon a man who says Jesus Christ was only a man. There are great facts of doctrine which we cannot explain, and justification by faith for instance. The second coming of Jesus Christ brooks no debating. It is a fact that the Redeemer will return, He said so Himself.

Second, the manner of His coming. The word of the Lord, Himself, is: "Behold I come as a thief." A thief comes as a surprise, he comes without any demonstration. If the good man of the house had known at what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not suffered his house to be broken into. When Jesus Christ comes, He comes as a thief and His saints are caught up to meet Him in the air. When He returns with His saints with Him, there are two stages in His coming. The Bride is mighty precious to the Bridegroom. The thief takes that which is most precious in the house. Jesus Christ takes his Church which He purchased with His own blood at infinite cost. The thief comes at an hour when you think not. He is not a guest. The only thing that holds this old world together is the saints that are in it,—"Ye are the salt of the earth." The New Birth is the right to partake in the Rapture. The Body of Christ is made up of every true believer and Jesus Christ is the head. Anybody with a part gone, an eye or an arm missing is not perfect. Jesus Christ will not take a mutilated body. Some day the body will be complete, some man or woman will be saved, it may be you or me, who will be the last one to complete the body before Christ comes. That is our position based upon the fundamental law given by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Third, the date of His coming. There are people who have an abnormal curiosity, who are always peering into the face of God and asking "Why?" There is no warrant for even a general time given in the scriptures much less a specific time. Jesus Christ holds out this great and mighty principle—to be ready and watching. We believe the Word of God from cover to cover. No minister has any right to be spreading the Gospel unless he is enthusiastic over it. If the Redeemer does not return there will be no reward for service. St. Paul will never receive his crown until Jesus Christ comes. If Jesus Christ does not return there will not be one solitary grave opened; it is the shout of the Redeemer that opens the graves of our loved ones. We shall be like Him, we shall see Him as He is. Further, wars and rumors of wars will continue until He returns. Pessimism, do you say? These are the facts of Jesus Christ set forth in His own words. What I say I say unto you all, "Watch for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh." We do not know much about the program but we know we are included in it. So shall we ever be with the Lord. Let us live every day as we would live when the end will come.
